

I feel there is entirely too much violence on TV, which, over a period of time, has been shown to desensitize children to the results of violent acts. Violence tends to beget more violence...and here in CA, the building of more prisons is one of our largest "industries". Its clear, we must reduce the violent content and the foul language NOW!